This morning Warren Bisuchard was found dead in his house in this city. The mould in mates, consisting of his wife und two girle, fied, and the affair 16 invoired in mystery. All the doors and windows of the house were fastened from the inside except one, from which the woman and girle sexaped. Bisachard's head was found in a bruss kettle, and bore marks of a pistol bail. Nothing is known of the matter except that neighbors heard a disturbance at three o'cleck yeaterday morning and the report of a pistol, when a man rate out of the house and the noise ceased. As the house was classed as dis orderly, no attention was paid to the proceedings. The woman, before ieasing, cleared away all traces of blood, and there are no indications of the manner in which the deed was performed.

"Well, sir?"

lude: inform me and then I can reply," rejoin-ad Grant.

Senator Ross liked the second answer little beiter than the first, but having come for en-lightenment, he was determined not to go away-in a fog The Senator, therefore, with sup-pressed rage, explained the appointments to which be had reference "Frantly, sir," said Grant, "I intend not to make those appointments" "What, air." You scorn to accommodate me in the least, "exclaimed Ross, builting over with rage the subject," muttered Grant between his to "and dealer the interview should terminate" rige, quitting the While House like one cushing from a plague, and hurracel to the Capitol President Grant threw humself into a chair the moment the door closed, and wiped his brow with his pocket handkerchief, evidently much agitated. Old Zach Chandler approached, and was thus addressed by the President.

"Excuse me a few moments—After that interview I must take a little time to cool off. But he account which I have learned, and which I give substantially as It came to me I do not youch for its truth, but have good grounds to believe it is not very different from the actual occurrence.
